PUBLICATION OFFICE, 13 & 15 PARK ROW, N. Y.

NOTES IN SEASON.

A. C. ARMSTRONG & SON have issued a new edition of "At Home in Fiji," by C. F. Gordon Cumming. The work is in one volume, and has illustrations and a map.

E. P. DUTTON & Co. will issue next week the "Life of Bishop Selwyn," in two volumes; and two devotional text-books for laymen, entitled "Churchman's Altar Manual," and "Churchman's Text-Book."

R. WORTHINGTON has published Prof. R. A. Proctor's "Popular Science Studies." The volume comprises essays taken chiefly from the Times, Scribner's Magazine, Gentleman's Magazine, Belgravia, Contemporary Review, and the Cornhill. Their purpose is to give a clear and simple but also correct account of scientific matter likely to be interesting to the general public.

P. BLAKISTON, SON & Co. have now ready the new edition of Gower's "Manual and Atlas of Ophthalmoscopy," with fine lithographic plates and woodcuts; also the sixth edition of Holden's "Human Osteology," previously announced. They have in preparation for early publication "Clinical Lectures and Notes on Diseases of the Nervous System," by Thomas Buzzard, M.D., Physician to the National Hospital for the Paralyzed and Epileptic.

HARPER & BROS. have just ready Professor Charles Kendall Adams' "Manual of Historical Literature." It is intended for students, general readers, and collectors of books, and gives compact information in regard to the most important histories in English, French, and German, with suggestions as to the proper methods and order of using the materials indicated. They will issue shortly J. R. Green's "The Making of England," a history of the earlier times up to the union of England under Ecgbirth.

CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS will issue on the 15th inst., the sixth volume in their excellent Campaigns of the Civil War series. This volume, entitled "Chancellorsville and Gettysburg," is by Gen. Abner Doubleday, who commanded the First Corps at Gettysburg, and who begins his sketch with the appointment of Hooker, bringing it through the campaigns of Chancellorsville and Gettysburg to the retreat of Lee after the battle.

FORDS, HOWARD & HULBERT issue this week Dr. A. W. Tourgee's new story, "John Eax and Mamelon; or, The South without a Shadow." The story opens with a characteristic description of an old-time Southern family, which, beginning with an immigrant Huguenot cordwainer, waxes mighty until it scorns the intrusion of alien blood. The story is in autobiographic form, and begins in a prison cell, where a De Jeunette languishes, who has presumed to fall in love with the niece of his father's overseer.

THE CATHOLIC PUBLICATION SOCIETY Co. makes announcement of the forthcoming publication of five new books, as follows: "Catholic Controversy," by Dr. Ryder; "Lectures and Discourses," by Bishop Spalding, of Peoria; "All for Love; or, From the Manger to the Cross," by Father Moriarty; "Essays and Reviews, chiefly Roman," by Monsignor Seton, D.D.; and "The Life and Letters of Irma le Ferde de la Motte," better known as Sister Xavier, Sisters of Providence, St. Mary's of the Woods, Indiana. These books will be ready by Easter or thereabouts, and will be got out in good style.

G. P. PUTNAM'S SONS have published "The Art of Voice Production, with special reference to the methods of correct breathing," by A. A. Patton; "Of English Literature in the Reign of Victoria, with a Glance at the Past," by Henry Morely, which is reprinted by arrangement from the 2000th volume of the Tauchnitz "Collection of British Authors," a new story in the Transatlantic series, entitled "The Dingy House at Kensington," described as a "simple, natural tale of domestic life," and the Bedell Lecture for 1881, being "The World's Witness to Jesus Christ—the power of Christianity in developing modern civilization," by Bishop John Williams, of Connecticut.

HOUGHTON, MIFFLIN & Co. will publish on the 18th an American edition of "Magyarland," two royal octavo volumes of travel in the highlands and lowlands of Hungary, illustrated with numerous engravings; also the first volume of a new series entitled American Classics for Schools. This volume will include selections from Longfellow's writings, with special reference to their interest for children, and ready apprehension by them, and the book will be introduced by a biographical sketch of Mr. Longfellow, and equipped with foot-notes explaining the personal and historical allusions in the poems. At the same time will appear "Percussion Outlines," by Dr. E. G. Cutler and Dr. G. M. Garland, of Boston; and a little volume containing Senator Hoar's admirable eulogy upon President Garfield, delivered in December at Worcester, Mass., with a fine steel portrait. The "Life of Copley" and Spedding's "Evenings with a Reviewer" are postponed to March 11.

WEEKLY RECORD OF NEW PUBLICATIONS.

In this list, the titles in brevier are direct transcriptions from books actually received, according to the rule of the American Library Association; those in nonpareil are from the best information available, and will be repeated in brevier when the book is received for registry.

The abbreviations are usually self-explanatory. A colon after initial designates the most usual given name, as: A: Augustus; B: Benjamin; C: Charles; D: David; E: Edward; F: Frederic; G: George; H: Henry; I: Isaac; J: John; L: Louis; N: Nicholas; P: Peter; R: Richard; S: Samuel; T: Thomas; W: William.

Sizes are designated as follows: F. (folio: over 30 centimeters high); Q. (4to: under 30 cm.); O. (8vo: 25 cm.); D. (16mo: 20 cm.); S. (16mo: 17½ cm.); T. (24mo: 15 cm.); TL. (32mo: 12½ cm.); Fe. (48mo: 10 cm.). Sq., obl., nar., designate square, oblong, narrow books of these heights. Where figure instead of letter symbols are used, the record is from publisher's designation, and not measurement.

Imported books are marked with an asterisk; authors' and subscription books, or books published at net prices, with two asterisks; educational books published at "wholesale" prices, with a dagger.

Baker, B. The actual lateral pressure of earth-work. Reprinted from Van Nostrand's Magazine. N. Y., D. Van Nostrand, 1881. 180 p. il. T. (Van Nostrand's sci. ser., no. 56.) bds., 50 c.

"The much-discussed subject of the pressure of earthwork is in this essay so exhaustively treated that nothing is left to be desired. The inquirer may find here a satisfactory explanation of the causes of the discrepancies between theory and practice, and of the differences between different authorities. It was originally presented as a paper to the Institution of Civil Engineers, from the published minutes of which the essay as here presented was published in Van Nostrand's Magazine. Abstracts only of the discussion are presented here."—Preface.

Conner, Levietta Bartlett, comp. The parent-heart in song. Cin., P. G. Thomson, 1882. 303 p. il. D. cl., $2.

The object of this work is to bring before the public in one collection some of the numerous fine poems that have arisen from the parent-heart, showing forth that sentiment. Under the headings "The fireside," "Lessons of mercy," "Lessons of childhood," "Bereavement," "Consolation," we find some of the finest poems of Bryant, Taylor, Procter, Coleridge, Browning, Tennyson, Miss Muloch, Jean Ingelow, Alice Cary, Longfellow, Lowell, Massey, etc.

Crosby, W. O. Common minerals and rocks. Bost., Ginn, Heath & Co., 1881. 130 p. T. (Guides for science-teaching, no. 12.) pap.,

This little work is limited to dynamical and structural geology; it gives a general sketch of the forces now concerned in the formation of rocks and rock-structures, and an account of the composition and other characteristics of the common minerals and rocks.

Dillon, J. F. Commentaries on the law of municipal corporations. 3d ed., rev. and enl. Bost., Little, Brown & Co., 1881. 2 v., 8°. shp., net, $11.

JOURNALISTIC NOTES

THE report about starting a new illustrated weekly in Boston, backed by Roswell Smith, of the Century, and published by James R. Osgood & Co., is formally denied.

IN the March Wide Awake, under the title, "How I Entertained Two Little Girls," an old schoolmate of Miss Louisa M. Alcott will give some charming reminiscences of that popular author.

"THE friends of the late Mr. Delano A. Goddard, who for the last fourteen years had edited with signal ability the Boston Daily Advertiser," says Harper's Weekly, "are engaged in raising a testimonial in money to be presented to his widow. Already $10,000 have been subscribed, and there is good reason to believe that $10,000 more will be realized without difficulty. Mr. Goddard was one of the foremost men in the journalism of New England—able, scholarly, industrious, and with peculiar aptitude for his profession. Mr. Goddard is succeeded by Mr. Edward Stanwood, who has for many years occupied a responsible position on the Advertiser's staff, and brings thorough training and ripe experience to the discharge of his new duties."

"A REAL novelty in magazine literature," says the London Athenaeum, "has this year been introduced in Cassell's Magazine under the title of 'The Family Parliament.' The discussions are exciting the liveliest interest; and a new debate, we see, is to be opened in the February number on the question, 'Are Early Marriages Unthrifty?' The debates are open to all readers of the magazine."

The Publishers' Weekly.

FEBRUARY 11, 1882.

PUBLISHERS are requested to furnish title-page proofs and advance information of books forthcoming, both for entry in the lists and for descriptive mention. An early copy of each book published should be forwarded, to insure correctness in the final entry.

The trade are invited to send "Communications" to the editor on any topic of interest to the trade, and as to which an interchange of opinion is desirable. Also, matter for Notes and Queries," gratefully received.

In case of business changes, notification or card should be immediately sent to this office for entry under "Business Notes." New catalogues issued will also be mentioned when forwarded.

"Every man is a debtor to his profession, from the which, as men do of course seek to receive countenance and profit, so ought they of duty to endeavor themselves by way of amends to be a help thereunto."—LORD BACON.

CANADIAN PUBLISHERS' ASSOCIATION.

AT the first annual meeting of the Canadian Publishers' Association, held at Toronto last week, the following gentlemen were elected officers for the ensuing year: J. Ross Robertson, President; A. S. Irving, Vice-President, and G. M. Rose, Secretary and Treasurer.

A large amount of business was transacted. A memorial was submitted and adopted for the consideration of the Dominion Government, setting forth the injustice of the present state of the Imperial law on copyright, by which an American publisher has privileges that cannot be attained by a Canadian publisher. The fact is set forth in the memorial that an American publisher can reprint a British copyright book, export it to Canada, and on payment of 15 per cent to the Canadian Government and 12½ per cent to the author, sell the book in Canada, while the Canadian publisher, even if he will pay 27½ per cent, is not allowed to reprint.

A deputation was appointed to proceed to Ottawa to lay before the Government the case of the publishers, and urge that the Canadian Government ask from the Imperial authorities the right to legislate for itself in matters of copyright.

A resolution was passed asking the press to take the case of the publishers in hand.

THE LIBRARY OF CONGRESS.

THE N. Y. Tribune gives the following abstract of the annual report of Mr. A. R. Spofford, Librarian of Congress, summarizing the progress of the Congressional Library and the operations of the copyright department during the year ended on the 31st of December:

The entire library now numbers 420,092 volumes, as against 396,788 volumes one year ago.

Out of this aggregate, 52,591 volumes of books belong to the law department of the library.

The accessions to the collections during the year 1881 embraced 23,304 volumes of books and 12,834 pamphlets.

The books acquired by purchase numbered 7429, and by copyright deposits 11,372. The copyright deposits or pamphlets aggregated 8928, bringing up the total number of pamphlets now in the library to about 146,000.

Over 5000 books and pamphlets were added to the library during last year through the Smithsonian Institution, and about 2500 were received as donations and exchanges.

The business of the copyright department exhibits a slight increase for the year 1881, although the entries and receipts during the year 1880 were unprecedented. The aggregate entries last year were 21,075, of which the principal classes were as follows: books, 7400; periodicals, 4339; musical compositions, 5578; dramatic compositions, 415, engravings and chromos, 1583.

Librarian Spofford says, in conclusion: "The question of most absorbing interest, regarding the present condition and future care of this great collection, remains yet unsettled so far as final action on the part of Congress is concerned. It is earnestly hoped that this long delayed measure for the protection of the public property, and for the permanent conservation and orderly arrangement of the invaluable collection which the Capitol can no longer hold, will now become a law."

PERSONAL NOTES.

MR. J. C. DERBY, long and well known among publishers, has severed his connection of many years with the house of D. Appleton & Co. Mr. Derby purposes to resume the business of publishing books, and will be happy to see his friends. His present address is: Care Brown & Derby, No. 21 Park Place, New York. The Mail and Express, in making note of this change, gives the following interesting bit of literary history. "Mr. Derby, who, we believe, was originally from Auburn, was a leading New York publisher twenty or twenty-five years ago, and, in that capacity, had the honor of introducing many now famous authors to the notice of their admiring countrymen and countrywomen, among others Mr. Thomas Bailey Aldrich, whose first volume of verse, 'The Bells,' and whose first fiction, 'Daisy's Necklace, and What Came of It,' were ushered into momentary existence by him. He also, if our memory is not at fault, stood sponsor for 'The Newsboy,' 'The Household of Bouverie,' and a good, rich work from the burin of Mr. Dick Tints."

NOTES ON AUTHORS.

JUSTIN MCCARTHY is writing for the Epochs of Modern History series a volume entitled "Epochs of Reform, 1830-1850."

ROBERT GRANT, the author of "The Confessions of a Frivolous Girl," is said to be writing a new novel in the interval of his occupations as the private secretary of the Mayor of Boston.

CHARLES WELSH has in preparation a work which will be published by Messrs. Griffith & Farran, entitled: "A Bookseller of the Last Century—being some account of the life of John Newbery and of the books he published, with a chapter on the later Newberys." "The philanthropic publisher of St. Paul's Churchyard," as Goldsmith, in his "Vicar of Wakefield," has called him, is a figure of some interest in the literary history of the eighteenth century. The first bookseller who made the issue of books for children a business of any importance, he brought before the world a number of books which have proved of incalculable benefit. But not only is he to be remembered as the publisher of "Goody Two Shoes" and kindred works; he was intimately associated with Dr. Johnson, Oliver Goldsmith, Smart, and many others, and he busied himself with many projects of a seemingly more important character than the publication of works for the young. The volume will be supplemented by an alphabetical list of books published by the Newberys from about 1730 to 1800.

LITERARY AND TRADE NOTES.

E. H. LIBBY, Chicago, has commenced the fortnightly publication of a "Farm Library" at 10 cents each.

"THE ORTHOËPIST" and "The Verbalist," by Alfred Ayres, published by D. Appleton & Co., are among the most successful of recent publications. The former is already in its twelfth, the latter in its fifth edition.

JAMES R. OSGOOD & Co. have in preparation a volume of "Familiar Allusions," which was begun by W. A. Wheeler, author of the "Dictionary of Noted Names of Fiction," and which will be completed by his nephew, Charles G. Wheeler.

CASSELL, PETTER, GALPIN & Co. have in preparation a new work, entitled "Pleas for Protection Examined," by Mr. Mongredien, author of the "History of the Free Trade Movement in England" and other popular volumes of an economic and political value.

ROBERTS BROTHERS will publish by and by a book of "Sonnets and Canzonets," by A. B. Alcott, mostly written within the past two years, since he passed his eightieth birthday. Many of them refer to Mr. Alcott's friends, living and dead, but the names are not given.

J. M. STODDART & Co., Philadelphia, announce as nearly ready a new volume of poems, written by a friend and college-mate of Oscar Wilde's, who will preface the poems with an introductory article, relating the circumstances under which they were written, and other matters of interest connected with them.

G. P. PUTNAM'S SONS will shortly publish for the Society of Political Education the second series of their "Library." This will include Blanqui's "History of Political Economy in Europe," "Money and the Mechanism of Exchange," by J. Stanley Jevons, and John Stuart Mill's essay "On Liberty."

THERE is a great "boom" in Longfellow literature, in preparation for the poet's seventy-fifth birthday, which occurs February 27, and which is to be celebrated in thousands of schools. The Longfellow "Leaflets," which contain short poems and prose passages from Longfellow's writings, are admirably adapted for use in schools, and should be considered in stocking up with Longfellow literature.

DR. HOLLAND's family and editorial associates authorize a positive contradiction of the statement that he was the author of the long poem, "Geraldine," which was published anonymously not long ago. The rumor, which was started about the time of Dr. Holland's death, has grown now to positive assertion; and it is requested by those who were nearest to Dr. Holland that the journals which have printed the statement should, in justice, print the denial.

MARCUS WARD & Co. have just received a fresh stock of "The Haven of Peace," a devotional text-book for every evening, and "The Anchor of Hope," a devotional text-book for every morning, by Rev. J. H. Macduff. It is a small quarto, beautifully printed on heavy paper with marginal decorations, and is two books bound in one, which the reader can reverse. A small lot were received just before Christmas, but were speedily exhausted. They are making preparations to move from Philadelphia to New York. They expect to occupy their new headquarters, 734 Broadway, by March 1.

THE souvenir programme of the 100th night of "Patience" in New York, and the 250th in London, printed and published by the "Art Interchange Publishing Press," and issued simultaneously here and in England, is something quite unique in its way. It is beautifully printed in colors, and contains nine illustrations of the characters of the opera, designed and drawn by J. E. Kelly, which are exceedingly spirited and excellent likenesses of the leading actors. Mr. Smalley, in writing from London to the New York Tribune, says of this souvenir, "It is the most elegant production of the kind that has ever been seen on this side of the Atlantic."

THE enormous business done in the publication and supply of valentines shows no diminution this year, and the dealers offer very full lines, ranging from the cheapest caricatures to the most elaborate and elegant designs. Among these latter will, of course, be included those of Messrs. L. Prang & Co., which are especially noticeable for excellence of finish and artistic design. Their valentines now exceed 125 varieties, rich in colors, and supplied either with or without the silk fringe. Some of these designs, printed on satin, are most elaborate, and by maintaining the standard of artistic excellence achieved by their other holiday cards, have done much toward raising the valentine standard above its old-time level of mere caricature.

THE third volume of the writings of Kossuth will be published in March. In addition to some new light on the circumstances of the death of Ladislaus Teleki, it will contain a full account of the bank-note trial.

THE first volume of the "Selected Prose Writings of Bayard Taylor," translated by Mrs. Taylor, has since its publication in Leipzig last autumn had a notable success. This volume, which contains the Weimar papers and the essays on the chief German writers and on Tennyson and Thackeray, has been welcomed with admiring appreciation by the German critics. The Deutsche Revue concludes an encomium with the declaration that the essays ought to be placed in every library in Germany beside the classics of her literature. The second volume of Mrs. Taylor's translation, containing her husband's "Notes" to both parts of "Faust," is now in the hands of the publisher, and will appear in April.

L. PRANG & CO.'S 1882. VALENTINES 1882.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

WE hereby beg leave to announce to the Trade the completion of our line of Valentines for 1882, which we think will compare very favorably even with our line of Christmas Cards, which in so high a degree met with the approval of the Trade.

Assortment.—Our Valentines are put up in envelopes or boxes containing 12 cards, unless the quality is otherwise specified. The assortment is made up of the different designs contained in the series, and as no series has 12 different designs, the designs are more or less repeated. Our Satin Print and Silk-trimmed Valentines are carefully packed, each in a neat box. Prices range from 35 cents a dozen to $5 list a piece.

Envelopes.—We furnish envelopes, without extra charge, for all cards in this line costing $1.80 per set or over.

Silk-fringed Cards.—All fringed Valentines come provided with protectors and envelopes, to insure safe transmission through the mails, and are made up with assorted colors of fringes. We would call attention to these attractive cards, which are made up with the best quality of HEAVY SILK FRINGE, especially made for us.

Show Cards supplied to the trade with orders.

Special attention is called to our SATIN PRINT AND SILK TRIMMED VALENTINES, each carefully packed in a neat box.

122 F.—Four-Figure Designs, same as Series 115, printed on satin and richly trimmed with silk and fancy fringes. Price, each $3.

123 F.—Two-Figure Designs, same as Series 117, printed on satin and richly trimmed with silk and fancy fringes. This series is especially appropriate for older people, for husband or wife. Price, each $3.50.

124 D F.—Two-Figure Designs, folding, same as Series 121 D F, richly trimmed with silk and fancy fringes and tassels. Price, each $5.

Of all Valentines costing $3 per set and over, we are ready to break sets, if so desired.

REGULAR DISCOUNTS TO THE TRADE FROM ABOVE PRICES.

Besides the above, attention is called to our NEW BIRTHDAY CARDS, ARTISTIC PLAQUES, and other Art Publications
